Bandit

2008 ABC Best Books for Children
2008 Best Illustrated Children's Book—James Patterson
2009 International Reading Association-Children's Book Council Children's Choice Award
*Starred review—School Library Journal

"By telling the story from the point of view of an extremely territorial pet, Rostoker-Gruber approaches the issue of moving in a fresh way. Bandit's experience and reaction will resonate with children who have moved themselves: the 'tude he exhibits, the resignation with which he says good-bye to all that is familiar, and the comfort he feels in finding favorite objects, even if they are in an unfamiliar place."

Bandit's Surprise

*Starred review—School Library Journal

"... Bandit's story will console children with an attention-getting younger sibling and entertain them with the laugh-out-loud dialogue and situations."
